

OZindo

Monthly Indonesian m a g a z i n e

OZindo is currently the first Indonesian magazine based in Sydney, the one and only. Thus, different from any other tabloids (since there are none other magazines), OZindo provides the Indonesian community with high quality topics brought in a light-everyday discussion.

After 9 years circulating around Sydney, this magazine is indeed community's magazine of all range of age; It is fascinating, informative as well as educative, creative and will cater all the needs of Indo Community.

OZindo magazine is a 68 pages monthly magazine, distributed freely. Magazine topics covered will include: Entertainment, Lifestyle, Community, Education and Work.

In the awake of OZindo, once called Ausindo, we are now maintaining the most prominent quality in all aspects: content, advertising management, and sharpened target market. In return, it will be beneficial for your company, in terms of customers and the renowned of the company's name.

More than that, the clients whom already deal in the advertisement section with us, would definitely get their benefit to strengthen their base in Sydney, to be engaged at all times with the current and prospect customers by displaying their advertisement in the Indonesian media.
